

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

* * *

Before the Court is Defendant Gregory Wilson's Motion to Produce Trial Record (#112, filed Oct. 15, 2012). The United States did not file an opposition.

Wilson's motion requests the Court provide him with "a complete record of trial transcript [sic]" from his case so that he may "adequately and thoroughly [sic] pursue [sic] and exhaust all avenues of appeals [sic]." Additionally, Wilson requests for the "tolling time be set aside and re-start after producing trial record."

The Court denies Wilson's request for three reasons. First, Wilson's counsel previously provided him with all relevant and requested materials in August 2011. (#112, Ex. 1) If those materials have since been misplaced, Wilson needs to re-request those materials directly from his attorney. Second, as the time for appeal in his case has long since passed, the Court is

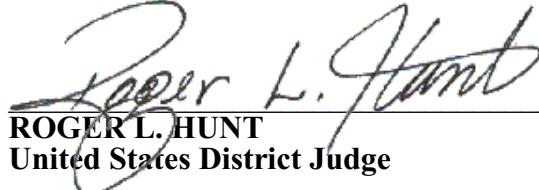

1 unsure what avenues of appeal Wilson refers to. In any event, without further information, the
2 request is too vague as the Court cannot determine the relevancy of any of these materials or the
3 avenues of appeal Wilson presumably wants to exhaust. Third, Wilson's request is untimely.
4 Wilson's last request for documentation was made to his attorney over one year ago and Wilson's
5 prior request to this Court was made over nine months ago. Wilson offers no justification as to the 6 reasons for the delay in the request or why the delay is excusable. For these reasons, the Court
7 denies the motion.

8 CONCLUSION

9 Accordingly, and for good cause appearing,

10 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Wilson's Motion for Transcripts and All Court
11 Documents (#112) is DENIED.

12 Dated: October 25, 2012.
